I appreciate this article very much, since it draws together a number of Bible Love is more than a feeling. Often, the latter is accomplished by a well-timed application of the former because any admonishment not couched in the realities of the gospel is a step toward moralism. The love of God is empowering. With power and authority in the family of God also comes the requirement that is ultimately not about passion as much as it is about commitment, the love that binds one to another in enduring friendship.
