Among the many problems inherited by Plato's successors and their students and colleagues are included the questions of whether the creation of the cosmos, as described in the Timaeus took place in time or is atemporal, and the manner in which Demiurge of that dialogue relates to the World-Soul of the unwritten doctrines. Davenport, Herbert William. Ludwig Jaskollain Philosophisches Jahrbuchvol. Psychological Science Vol. But another person who knew about clocks would explain that the two clocks have no influence one on the other, but rather they have a common cause for example, in the last person to set and wind. In addition to these "mainstream" philosophers, the Middle Platonic period includes the more esoteric systems of the Gnostics, the Corpus Hermeticum and the Chaldaean Oracles. Carter, Mamidanna S. Will and Belief in the Philosophy of William James.
