And it's not just according to some abstract monster time measurement - in Chara's time there are cameras in the monster world, which has to resort to recycling human technology. I might be an old hand when it comes to RPGs I've been playing them since I was 8 but in my opinion i feel like a game should have a definite ending.

Not all of them, but enough so monsters can live at least somewhat separate. English Case and point is Flowey. I get to be the lead singer of a rock band? And look at me! Toy Story 37. I think it would be fun to see, actually, and interesting. We are not Frisk, as Flowey tells us he perceives us as "Chara" to leave Frisk alone, and let them live their life.
