Life on earth is an opportunity and a blessing. In the eons of human history, those who were mindful that the core desire for any human, is an everlasting communion with Love, wrote down scriptures, in which it was described the coming of a Savior, which would lead the race of humans from the darkness of non-awareness and death, to the Light of knowledge and life. IjustborrowedtheJesusStorybookBiblefromafriendandwouldlovetohaveo I think he would also have seen himself as a prophet. The resonances between Jesus and Elijah would have been striking to first century Jews and to Christians familiar with the Old Testament. Do you know who painted it?
