Or maybe new systems are required? Are they indeed cheaper than state police officers? If the visible insignia of social control deter offenders [49], and if uniformed personnel carry signals of social control [50], then indeed we could assume that similar outcomes will take place when increasing the dosage of non-state police.

AboutLibraryPoliciesServices.They are able to reduce crime and disorder in the public domain with relatively low costs. In a competitive situation, other companies might also enter this race of apprehensions, resulting in that too much resources are wasted on catching too few criminals.
