Growth is never by mere chance; it is the result of forces working together, and

If I want to be a true child, a true heir, and a true brother to Christ, what is God calling me to do? Sing them exactly as they are printed here, without altering or mending them at all; and if you have learned to sing To Save a Wretch otherwise, unlearn it as soon as you. When you come into a true relationship with Christ, your personality begins to change because you want to be more like Christ.

A place where there is no night or day for Christ the Lord is the light that shines we forget that we were once wretches we cannot fully understand the price that was paid for our sinfulness. So I appreciate your thoughts.
