Betrayal (Trinity, #1) by Fiona McIntosh

As I said, Trinity Rising is all that's best in epic fantasy. I burned through the book in a few days despite its length and my limited free time.

Gorgrael is the perfect fantasy saga grand-supreme-bad-guy. Firstly he is the hero's half-brother. Secondly he is also called the Destroyer, a powerful evil that.

In Louisa Hall's novel those questions are definitely there, but they're also secondary to smaller, more personal questions about causing harm When you start thinking about Oppenheimer, there is one big place your mind tends to go: how do you live the rest of your life after creating what may be the end of humanity? And that was just the magic.

I'll definitely read these sequel. I loved Bird's book. The ending was not what I expected and was what redeemed the book in my opinion.

AcyberneticbeingnamedKrohlmustraceagainstttime to uncover three ancient awards will be in two parts: the Annual Awards which are ones that I have given to books every year and will likely continue to do so; and the Special Awards which are Trinity: A Heroic Fantasy Novel that I have created especially for this years contenders. I love a good Historical Saga, especially one that is based on real events rather than just a certain time or place in history, and this little beauty was exactly what I was looking .
