White makes clear that, prior to the Sabbath truth was not the test that it has been since. I did live a life outside of His perfect will and filled with sin.

Paul went on to explain "that a man is justified by faith apart from works of the law." My brother and I got to the point where we could no longer live our faith through our parents. Christ waits for the cooperation of His church. Seasons of great need call for frequent seasons of devotion.

When Christ came to our world, Satan was on the ground, and he disputed every inch of ground. We are redeemed "with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot" 1Pet 1:19. She just throws a little red meat to the sheeple, and they do the rest.
